Subject: HELPING HAND

Dear Sir/Ma'am,

A District & Sessions Judge is the Principal Judicial Officer of a District, who, in his administrative affairs, is assisted by a Senior Civil Judge-Administration. The responsibilities of a District & Sessions Judge are multifaceted and these include welfare concerns in the respective Districts also.

The Hon'ble Chief Justice has, therefore, desired that whenever the families of Hon'ble serving and retired Judges of the Superior Courts as well as the serving and retired Judicial Officers of the District Judiciary and their families face Act of God (death etc), the District & Sessions Judge concerned, in consultation with the family of such Judge/Judicial Officer, shall extend all possible cooperation including funeral/burial arrangements.

The Director (HR&W), SDJ of this Court shall act as focal person.
